

A GUIDE TO LORD'S

T20 BLAST – PAVILION ADMISSION & ROVER TICKETS

Middlesex members must sit in the Pavilion or Members' Friends' Enclosures for these matches unless you have specifically purchased a general public ticket. General public tickets will also NOT allow members' guests to sit with you in the members' areas.

Middlesex members (excluding County Members and Junior members) who wish to bring a guest (s) to any T20 Blast matches at Lord's will need to purchase either a Pavilion admission ticket (maximum ONE ticket for each T20 Blast match) or Rover ticket (maximum FOUR tickets for each match). This will allow your guest to sit in the Lord's Pavilion (if you have purchased a Pavilion admission ticket) or the Members' Friends' enclosures (Allen, Lower Tavern or Warner Stand) if you have purchased a Rover ticket.

PAVILION ADMISSION TICKETS

For T20 Blast matches in 2018, Middlesex members (excluding County Members and Junior Members) may introduce ONE guest (who must be in possession of a non-transferable PAVILION ADMISSION TICKET) into the Pavilion at Lord's. Pavilion Admission Tickets cost £20 for adults and £5 for 12-15 year olds. Please note: only juniors aged between 12 and 15 can be admitted to the Pavilion. Middlesex Junior members are NOT allowed to introduce guests into the Pavilion at Lord's.

ROVER TICKETS

Middlesex members (excluding County Members and Junior Members) are entitled to purchase up to FOUR Rover Tickets for each T20 Blast match in 2018, which will entitle the holder entry into the Members' Friends' Enclosures at Lord's (this DOES NOT include the Pavilion). Rover Tickets cost £20 for adults and £5 for under 16s.

Please note: If your friends and family purchase tickets for the general public stands, your Middlesex membership will NOT entitle you to sit with them in the public stands at T20 Blast matches at Lord's.

SIGNING GUESTS IN FOR NON-T20 BLAST MATCHES

Middlesex members (excluding Junior Members) are entitled to sign one guest into the Lord's Pavilion for all Specsavers County Championship and Royal London One-Day Cup group matches and up to two guests into the
